

Name	Madhup Mudgal
Date	14 th April 2017
Time	8:30 pm to 10:00 pm
Performing	Vocal
Gharana	Gwalior
Place	New Delhi
Early Training	Madhup, son of Vinayachandra Maudgalya, Founder-Principal of Delhi's Gandharva Mahavidyalaya, Madhup's initial training was under his father and thereafter under Vasant Thakar and Jasraj.
Gurus	Vinaychandra Maudgalya, Vasant Thakar, Kumar Gandharva and Jasraj.
Music Career	He is a regular performer at important platforms and festivals in India and abroad among them the Fez Festival in Morocco and the Theatre de la Ville in Paris, and as a top Grade Artist of All India Radio he features regularly in AIR's National Programme. At the same time, Madhup's classicism has not prevented him from innovating and experimenting. As a conductor of the acclaimed Gandharva Choir, Madhup has proved himself to be a brilliant composer of choral music. He has also performed in fusion concerts with eminent Jazz musicians Paulo Moura, Harmeto Pascoal and Benjamin Taubkin in Brazil.
Achievements	Madhup received a gold medal for his M.A. in music. He has an M.Phil degree from the Faculty of Music, Delhi University. During his years in University he received the Central Government's National Scholarship. In 1982 he received the Sanskriti Award for music and in 2006, the Padma Shri.
For more details	Please refer to SSAK website Click Here