

Name	Sumitra Guha
Date	15 th April 2017
Time	8:30 pm to 10:00 pm
Performing	Vocal
Gharana	Kirana
Place	Delhi
Early Training	Sumitra was initiated into music at a young age by her mother. Later at the age of 11, she began her formal education in Carnatic Music under the acclaimed S. R. Janakiraman
Gurus	S. R. Janakiraman, A. Kanan, Malobika Kanan and Sushil Kumar Bose.
Music Career	She became the first Andhra woman musician to sing Hindustani Classical. She sings Annamacharya kirtanas and Maharaja Swathi Thirunal compositions in Hindustani Style and Tirumala Tirupathy Devasthanam has recorded her Annamayya Sankirtanas in 1986. She has performed in various prestigious concerts such as - Maharana Kumbh Festival - Udaipur, Champaran Music Festival, Tansen Samaroh-Gwalior, Maghotsav-Siddhivinayak Temple-Mumbai, Times Music Festival - Kolkata and many others. She also performed in various concerts abroad. She has founded the Sumadhur Hansadhwani School of Music where music is imparted in the Guru Shishya Parampara style.
Achievements	She has won numerous awards such as Sangeet Kala Ratna by Sangeet Kala Kendra, Top Grade artist of All India Radio, 1995, Padma Shri, 2010, Outstanding Artist of ICCR and many more.
For more details	Please refer to our website Click Here