

Name	Sanjeev Chimmalgi
Date	16 th April 2017
Time	8:30 am to 9:45 am
Performing	Vocal
Gharana	Kirana, Gwalior & Agra
Place	Mumbai
Early Training	He took his early training in music from Krishna Lahiri and Prabhakar Gune at the age of 12 years. At the age of 14 he started learning under Madhav Gudi (disciple of the legendary Bhimsen Joshi) of Dharwad. Later C R Vyas imparted him in depth training for traditional compositions.
Gurus	Krishna Lahiri, Madhav Gudi, Satyasheel Deshpande, CR Vyas, Rajendra Manerikar and T.R.Balamani
Music Career	He has performed in various prestigious concerts all over India and abroad. Sanjeev came up with the concept of 'Manthan' - a group dedicated to reviving the baithak culture. Sanjeev has also designed a year-long workshop Antardhwani (along with 'Utsav Media') to train aspiring light music / playback singers.
Achievements	Best male playback singing for the marathi film 'Aai Shappath', Sangeetha Shiromani Award 2005-2006. A two-year Government of India National Scholarship for Young Achievers in the field of Indian music, AIR Music competition 1993 - Winner of this all India youth under-23.
For more details	Please refer to our website Click Here